

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Contact:

Christine Koebley, Chief Operating Officer
412-444-4464
ckoebley@pittsburghbotanicgarden.org

Pittsburgh Botanic Garden Hires Events Manager

Pittsburgh, PA., February 18, 2015—The Pittsburgh Botanic Garden has hired Megan DeBertrand as its new events manager. In her new role, Ms. DeBertrand will assist brides, event planners and others who wish to rent new event spaces that are available at the garden. She will also plan and coordinate various events at and in support of the garden.

Ms. DeBertrand was formerly with the University of Pittsburgh where she served as a research project manager and event coordinator for the Department of Psychiatry. She holds degrees in psychology and creative writing from Carnegie Mellon University.

Megan DeBertrand, Events Manager, Pittsburgh Botanic Garden

About the Pittsburgh Botanic Garden

The Pittsburgh Botanic Garden is transforming 460 acres of abandoned mining land just 10 miles west of Pittsburgh, PA into a world-class botanic garden, including 18 distinct gardens, five diverse woodland experiences, a visitor's center, an amphitheater for outdoor concerts and performances, a celebration center to accommodate weddings and corporate events and a center for botanic research. For more information please visit pittsburghbotanicgarden.org.

###